

The Internet Journal of the NI/USR Style Guidelines

LENGTH:

No length restrictions.

MARGINS:

Single column text within left and right margins of 1 in. (25mm) and top and bottom margins of 1.25 in. (30 mm).

PAGE NUMBERING:

Pages should be numbered consecutively at the bottom center leaving a margin of 0.75 in. (20mm).

HEADING:

One level of section headings is preferred. Headings should be set in bold upper and lower case letters, two points larger than the text (not underlined).

TEXT:

Text should be set in Times New Roman font with a size of 12 points.

ILLUSTRATIONS:

Illustrations should be either color / black-on-white line drawings or glossy color / black-and-white photographs with good contrasts. Their horizontal dimension must not exceed the width of the text. All illustrations should be numbered, provided with a legend, and referred to in the text.

REFERENCES:

References in the text should be cited as follows:

- (i) (Howard, 1988); for one author
- (ii) (Peter and Niles, 1989); for two authors
- (iii) (Miller et al, 1983); for three or more authors

References should be listed at the end of the paper and arranged in alphabetical order by the first author's surname. If more than one publication by the same author in a particular year are cited, they should be designated as 1996a, 1996b, and so on. The format of the reference list should be as follows:

Howard, J.B. (1988); Artificial Intelligence Principles and Practice; Longnan (pp.53)

Peters, P.B. and L.S. Niles (1989); Evaluation of Rate Algorithm; Artificial Intelligence Applications, Vol. 6, No.2 (pp. 23-26)

Miller, A., Penrose, D.F. and R.J. Ross (1983); The DIAZ Expert System: Design and Implementation; Proc. 3rd International Symposium on Cybernetics (ed. W. Fisher), Butterworth (pp.359-368)
